Young, Brave and Beautiful: The Missions of Special Operations Executive Agent Lieutenant Violette Szabó, George Cross, Croix avec Etoile de Bronze Tania Szabó

SOE agent Violette Szabó was the daughter of an English father and French mother, and widow of a French army officer killed in action in North Africa in 1942. On her second mission she was captured by the Germans, interrogated and tortured, and deported to Germany where she was eventually executed at Ravensbrück concentration camp. The bare bones of her story say nothing of the sabotage, gun battles, betrayal. Violette was the second woman ever to be awarded the George Cross and she was immortalised in the film Carve Her Name With Pride. What marks out this book is the simple, extraordinary fact that it is written by her daughter, Tania: she would have been two years old when she last saw her mother, the woman fellow agent Odette Churchill called 'The bravest of us all'.
