Exploring Colorado State Parks Martin G. Kleinsorge

This is a completely revised and updated edition of the first book to thoroughly explore Colorado's flourishing state parks system, from its stormy beginning in 1937 to the present. Containing scores of spectacular photographs, this unique guide provides a wealth of information on each of Colorado's forty state parks; its location and history; a general explanation of the site's flora, fauna, and geology; and the recreational activities available there, such as hiking, fishing, sailing, horseback riding, cross country skiing, and nature/wildlife photography.
