Jornalismo, ética e liberdade (Portuguese Edition) Francisco José Castilhos Karam

O autor defende nesta obra uma ética universal específica para o jornalista, com traços operativos distintos das demais profissões. Demonstra que a ética jornalística não se reduz à normatização escrita, mas faz parte do processo interior do profissional, que deve se refletir no trabalho cotidiano e se relacionar à totalidade social. Com base em teoria e filosofia do jornalismo, faz um balanço de diversos códigos de conduta jornalísticos vigentes no país e no exterior, analisando temas como cláusula de consciência, interesse público e privacidade, métodos lícitos e ilícitos na obtenção de informação. Analisa também princípios como verdade, objetividade e exatidão. Obra fundamental para a discussão de um tema atual e extremamente polêmico.
