Door&Window Design

Doors and windows are distinctive elements of a building's style. They define a building's appearance, and play a crucial role in its ventilation, lighting, and insulation. This comprehensive round-up features the many door and window types available today, including the most recent technical advances and design trends, with a focus on innovative materials, styles and shapes. Showcasing a multitude of design challenges and solutions, this volume is an invaluable reference and inspiration for the architect, homeowner, or interior decorator. With a background in architecture and photography, Antonio Corcuera is a freelance architectural writer based in Barcelona. He is currently involved in several editorial and curatorial projects in the Netherlands and Spain. ? Another of teNeues? authoritative series of guides to design trends and up-to-the-minute information ? Includes extensive color photographs and informative text
