Denying the Truth: A Black Woman's National Anthem Nashe'a

Denai is sweet; extremely naïve and some may say, desperate. Denai's husband Brandon is the perfect mistake, but what she endures is her fault! She asks herself daily if suicide would be a better marriage, but her mom reminds her that a wife should stand by her man! Even if it means a few blackened eyes and busted lips. Denai is cursed by her desire for perfection, after starting a life misdirected. Then Jordan comes along, and offers Heaven over Hell. However, is he really what he seems? Truth is only revealed by blood stains.
