The Angel Of Antioch Daniel Molyneux

"An intriguing tale of faith, persecution and courage."

A mysterious stranger appears in Antioch's Great House of Prayer speaking words filled with power and wisdom. Some believe he is an angel, others a prophet, but the religious leaders reject his words, regarding him as a dangerous fool. "The Angel of Antioch" is a parable-like story of faith, persecution and courage. Sharing similarities with two of the best-selling books of all time, "The Prophet" and "The Alchemist", "Angel" is an allegorical spiritual tale that reads like scripture. Events take place in the ancient city of Antioch, capital of the Selucid Empire, two centuries before Jesus of Nazareth.
