Walt Disney: Hollywood's Dark Prince Marc Eliot

Based on four years of intense research and exclusive interviews with numerous associates, friends and relations of Disney, Marc Eliot's explosive book presents the dark side of Walt Disney. From his 25 year association with the FBI as an informant rooting out Communists, subversives and Jews, to his phobic behavior – obsessive hand-washing, heavy drinking, sexual inadequacies, and his life long search for his real mother – Eliot shows how these psycho-sexual conflicts drove him to despair and found expression in his animated characters and billion-dollar empire.
