Excerpt from Chicago to Naples: Our Twelve Months' Tour Through the British Isles, France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Etc

Obeying the mandates of a recognized custom, that every book must have a preface, I desire to state that the following pages, narrating my experiences and reflections during a twelve months tour in Europe, have been prepared as a labor of love, and are now presented without pretention to my old friends, in the hope that an occasional hour of pleasure and profit may be realized in their perusal. If this aspiration should be accomplished, the author will consider himself amply repaid for his labors.
