SHELTERED SHADOWS DURING STORMS OF WAR (Book Five in the Series) The Civil War rages, shaking the very foundation of a young nation. It divided states, counties, towns and families. As a young boy, Alex Bailey had witnessed firsthand the cruelty of slavery on the Bailey Plantation. Now, as an adult, Alex knew he had to do something. He and Mary had already taken Titus and his family under their protection, but still more needed to be done. They found they could help shelter those in need through being part of the Underground Railroad. Jonas Dixon continues to betray his country. However, now his main objective is revenge. Sutton Abbott and Mackenzie Whitman have been a thorn in his flesh for far too long. The execution of Jerry Mullins had shaken his operation only slightly. There was always someone wanting or needing more money and Jonas was eager to supply money for information. What Jonas doesn't know is that finally, Mac and Sutton are closing in on him. Jonas is not the only one who has someone on the inside. Sutton has his own man, Joel Horton, in a strategic place in Cedar Grove. As the men of Cedar Grove work together to stop Jonas Dixon, they must now deal with possibly losing one of their own.
