Il regno dei due fratelli - L'urlo dell'odio (Italian Edition) Daniele Ingo

Ripercorrendo la traccia lasciata nella letteratura da “IL NOME DELLA ROSA” di Umberto Eco, “IL REGNO DEI DUE FRATELLI” si delinea un romanzo storico che non manca di offrire con la lucidità delle sue battute, e con le intuizioni del suo protagonista, un racconto storico ricco di colpi di scena, luoghi e personaggi spietati quanto affascinanti e misteriosi, offrendo un’analisi e spunti di riflessione anche per il lettore di oggi, sui misteri dell’esistenza e della religiosità, del senso della fede e dell’accettazione dell’omosessualità in una società complessa. In un contesto storico in lotta sotto il peso della Santa Inquisizione, i protagonisti della storia si ritrovano avvinti in una trama tanto mistica quanto razionalmente lucida e brillante, scandita da un incalzante ritmo fatto di sconvolgenti storie d’amore e di amicizia, di scaramantici riti e di misteriosi maligni. Una storia di legami umani in cui gli intrecci dell’amore vengono soffocati e confusi da travianti interpretazioni del messaggio divino, oltre che da fitte trame di potere.
