Refiner's Fire: Portraits and Reflections from the Psalms Reg Faust

This book tells the story of Philip, a man broken by the pain of rejection and abuse, burdened by the heaviness of his failure and sin and crushed beneath the silence and apparent abandonment of God. Alone and without hope, he cries out in anguish as everything he holds dear is lost. Travel through the Psalms with Philip and experience the heartaches and joys these psalmists expressed through their trials. And discover the faithfulness of God as He brings them out of the fire.
