Le radici del futuro (Pamphlet) (Italian Edition) Sabino Acquaviva

Gli Stati nazionali che fanno parte dell'Unione europea vanno cancellati dalla carta geografica e politica del continente. Questa la tesi esposta dal sociologo e scrittore Sabino Acquaviva. Per l'autore gli Stati nazionali sono i becchini dell'Europa, che, «se continuerà ad essere divisa, vedrà i nani da cui è composta demoliti dai colossi economici e demografici emergenti». Ma abolire gli Stati nazionali per sostituirli con cosa? La risposta è nella creazione di nuove aree politico-amministrative. Insomma, le macroregioni, sul modello della «Padania», che, sostiene Acquaviva, permetteranno ai popoli «di esprimere in forme nuove le loro esigenze di libertà». Nella sua affilata polemica, l'autore non risparmia nemmeno i partiti, «arcaici e fossilizzati strumenti», che non garantiscono più la partecipazione dei cittadini alla vita pubblica, ma sono espressione della «supercasta che ci domina».
